If you are a person with a learning disability, please tell us your age

Are you worried about less money for your support services? Is it causing you a problem?

If so, you can speak to Professor Luke Clements. He knows a lot about the law and can give you some advice.

You can speak to him for 10 minutes. This will not cost any money.

There will not be time for him to talk to many people. If you would like to talk to him, please tell us which time of day is best for you.
