

University of Salford
A Greater Manchester University

The Princess Royal Trust
Salford Carers Centre

Compassion and Value Based Care Free Event, 16 June 2010

Venue: Mary Seacole Building, University of Salford

Time: 10.00am - 4.00pm

Cost: Free (lunch and refreshments provided)

Keynote Speakers: Professor Mike Thomas, Executive Dean, University of Chester, and Dawn O'Rooke, Manager, The Princess Royal Trust Salford Carers Centre

The School of Nursing & Midwifery will be holding an event in celebration of National Carers Week

Event aimed at: Nurses and health care professionals

Event Focus

The event aims to raise awareness about the importance of the service user and carer experience and their contribution to caring and well-being.

Event Content

Presentations from:

- Professor Mike Thomas, 'Where is compassion placed in the league table?'
- Dawn O'Rooke, 'Carers - A life of their own'

The event will utilise workshops to explore key questions including;

- Whose role is it to care?
- How do we work in partnership with carers?
- Is care based on compassion?
- What is the 'going home' experience like?
- What are the positives of caring?

Certificate of attendance available. Places are limited so please book early

For further information or to reserve a place:

T: 0161 295 4086

E: fhsc-events@salford.ac.uk

www.fhsc.salford.ac.uk

Faculty of Health & Social Care