Examining Valuing People Now Delivery Plan and how it impacts on minority communities

14th September 09

9.30am - 4.00pm

Venue: NWTDT Training Room, Suite 4, TMC Building, The Globe Centre, Accrington, BB5 0RE

Target Audience

The event will benefit any professionals involved in the commissioning and delivery of services to individuals with learning disabilities and their families across health, education, social care and the voluntary sector.

Overview

This event will examine how the new strategies that will be brought into improve Learning Disability Services can be used for maximum advantage in the delivery of services to people from minority communities. The day will consider the implementation of valuing people now and how its four key strands will reflect other pieces of work.

In this one day course we will aim to look at:

- Background facts and figures.
- Human rights and learning disabilities.
- All people having a life like any other.
- "Valuing people now" what does this mean for minority communities?
- Health - drawing the Healthcare for All recommendations.
- Housing - reviewing the impact of Supporting People from minority communities.
- Employment and education - review of the national transition support programme and the "Progression through Partnership".
- Families and relationships - how does VPN consider the needs of minority communities in this agenda?
